A Murdering Wretch.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 5.—A Courier Journal Mount Pleasant, Kentucky, special, says: Calvin Smith was today shot and killed by his brother-in-law, J. Nolan. Nolan was drunk and began firing at Smith's house. The latter appeared at the doorway and said, "Shoot him, but spare his wife and children." Nolan took deliberate aim and fired, shooting Smith through the head. Nolan fled to the mountains, but is closely pursued by a band of citizens. Nolan has killed several men.

A Burmese Massacre
A horrible massacre has occurred in Mandalay. The guards placed in charge of the principle prisons, which are constructed of bamboo, set fire to one of the edifices, and, having assured themselves that the flames were already leaping to invade the parts which served as shelter to the wretched prisoners, opened the gates, in front of which had been drawn up a good number of soldiers armed with guns and swords. Then they threw themselves like wild beasts upon those who, to escape being burned alive, rushed out at the gates. The massacre lasted all night, in the presence of the highest functionaries of the town, with cries and gesticulations excited the assassins against their passive victims. The number of killed exceeded 200, and among them were some relatives of Prince Yung Tan, who is at present living at Calcutta. The day after the massacre the bodies, mutilated in a manner too horrible to describe, were lying heaped about on carts and in the streets of the town. For some months past the prisons here and elsewhere have been crowded with brigands and political prisoners. A revolt was feared, and the governor could find no better expedient to avoid it than to give proof of his determined ferocity by ordering the massacre of all prisoners without distinction of sex, age, or the cause of imprisonment.

They Sow While He Will Reap.
Charley Backus, the well-known minstrel performer, was in the habit of visiting his mother in New Bedford, Mass. While he was there he would go to church with her regularly Sunday morning, Sunday afternoon and Sunday evening. On one occasion a collection was being taken up in aid of the missionaries of the Sandwich Islands. The plate was being passed around and the frugal congregation were putting in their pennies and their shin-plasters, in the denomination of 25 cents. Backus most munificently dropped in a silver dollar.
His mother leaned over the high-back pew and whispered:
"Charley, why will you be so extravagant? A quarter was plenty to put in that box." "Never mind, mother," said the minstrel, "I play to the Sandwich Islanders next month, and I'll rake in the whole collection."
